

Younited Financial S.A. Shareholders and Warrant Holders Approve the Re-domiciliation of the Company from Luxembourg to France

Luxembourg & Paris, 6 May 2026 – Younited Financial S.A. (the “Company”), the listed holding company of Younited S.A., a leading European consumer credit platform and regulated credit institution, today held its Annual and Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders and Warrant Holders General Meeting.

On this occasion, the shareholders and warrant holders approved the re-domiciliation of the Company, currently incorporated in Luxembourg, to France¹. As a result, the registered office, central administration and effective seat of management of the Company will be transferred to France, and the Company will be converted into a French public limited company (société anonyme) governed by the laws of France, without dissolution and with full corporate and legal continuity.

The re-domiciliation will become effective upon registration of the Company with the French Trade and Companies Register (Registre du Commerce et des Sociétés) which is expected in July 2026.

The Company’s ordinary shares will continue to be admitted to trading on Euronext Paris. The Company will provide further information regarding the effective date of the re-domiciliation in due course.
