Younited Financial S.A. Announces the Departure of Geoffroy Guigou, Co-Founder and Deputy CEO of Younited S.A.

Paris & Luxembourg, 6 November 2026 – Younited Financial S.A. (Euronext: YOUNI), the parent company of Younited S.A., a leading European consumer credit platform, today announces that Geoffroy Guigou, co-founder and Deputy CEO (Directeur général) of Younited S.A., will leave the Group.

"On behalf of the Board and everyone at Younited, I would like to warmly thank Geoffroy for what he brought to Younited over the past 17 years. He initially led our consumer lending business in France ; he then launched from scratch our point-of-sale financing business line, which under his leadership quickly became a powerful acquisition channel, especially through our telco and consumer electronics partners. Geoffroy also oversaw the launch of new products, such as Younited Cashback recently, and since 2009 has been instrumental in shaping and embodying our distinctive corporate culture", said Charles Egly, Chief Executive Officer of Younited.

"I feel extremely lucky and grateful to have co-founded and developed with Charles such a great company. Entrepreneurship is about transforming an idea into reality, laying the foundations for growth, building talented teams at each stage, and relentlessly investing your energy so that the company can reach its potential. I am proud of what we have achieved together, and fully confident in Younited future", said Geoffroy Guigou.

Following Geoffroy's departure, the Company will appoint Pierre-Marin Campenon as member of the management board (directoire) and COO, subject to regulatory approval.
